

THE DEDICATION

OF THE WORLD WAR II

MEMORIAL

Sunday, June Thirteenth

Nineteen Hundred and Forty-eight

KNOX UNITED CHURCH

Calgary, Alberta

The Carillonic Tower Bells

are dedicated to the Glory of God, and are in grateful recognition of the services of the men and women of Knox Church who were enrolled in the Armed Forces in World War II, and in cherished memory of those who died.

Aloft in yonder tower,
Now sound our hallowed bells;
Their message, as we hear it,
Of Faith and Duty tells.
Their notes, to us appealing,
In tones so rich and clear,
Shall call us all together,
God's Holy Word to hear.

Their joyous peals resounding
On every common day
Should stir our hearts to gladness,—
To sing, to love, to pray.
And when our spirits waver,
Or trials harsh assail,
Then may their sacred message
Say "Christ shall never fail."

Thus shall our joys and sorrows
Be mingled with their sound,
Till we in heaven's mansions
God's holy throne surround,
With many thousand voices
To glorify the Lord,
Whose name by men and angels
Be worshipped and adored.

"While a bright future beckoned, they freely gave their lives and fondest hopes for us, that we might learn from them to spend our lives making a better world."

As a gift beneath His throne;
All their sweet and noblest music
Shall resound for Him alone.

Faithful men afar shall listen,
'Mid their daily toil or rest,

While the melody shall bid them
Love the church where all are blest.

When the spirits of the faithful
Pass away to light and peace;
Solemn tones shall then forewarn us
Soon our life and work must cease.

May these fine and well-tuned voices
Pealing forth in grand accord,
Lift our hearts thru joy and sorrow
To Thy throne, most gracious Lord

The Benediction and Three-fold Amen.

Notes on War Memorial Dedication

In the Fall of 1945, the Official Board appointed a War Memorial Committee, consisting of G. W. Skene (chairman), Mrs. W. V. Dixon, Mrs. J. W. Richardson, W. Cameron Jack, H. M. Hartney, Col. John Begg, D.S.O., and S-L Percy Buker.

The following directive was placed in their hands —

"The War Memorial Committee is hereby authorized to secure from the congregation suggestions as to the nature of our War Memorial, to examine into the feasibility and cost of these suggestions, to bring forward any plans of its own, to present recommendations to a congregational meeting, and to take what means it sees fit to carry through to a successful issue this War Memorial Project."

The impressive service this morning represents a faithful fulfillment of this commission.

The Session recently passed a resolution, in which we are sure every member and adherent will concur. The resolution expresses appreciation of the long and painstaking labours of the Memorial Committee, and extends thanks to Dr. W. A. Park, director of campaign fund, to the canvassers, and all who contributed.

The permanent Honour Roll is in process of completion, and will be ready for Remembrance Day in November.

The Bronze Plaque still requires approximately 140 hours of work at the hands of the copper-smiths, and will be returned to the manufacturers this week to be finished.

A few copies of this Memorial Calendar may be available from the church office.

Lest there be any misunderstanding as to the nature of the Carillon being dedicated to-day, the following information is provided —

The Schulmerich Carillonic Bells are not a true carillon, in that the bells are not full-sized. Neither are they tubular chimes, (which are quite a different instrument). They are true bells, more accurate in tone than any cast bell could be, but are miniature in size. They are sounded by electrical impulse, and are raised to the volume of full-sized bells by the modern science of electronics. They are played from a small console, to be heard either inside the church, or from the tower, or in both ways at the same time. A special attachment permits the playing of the bells automatically at designated hours of the day. The carillon has a range of two full octaves.

The Tri-light Pulpit Lamps, which are in memory of William Morrison Wallace, have recently been refurbished, and are now in place again. We express appreciation to the donors, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Wallace.
